

| <h1>Theatre Studies</h1> | |
|-----------------------------|---|
| Exam Board | AQA |
| Course Entry Criteria | B in GCSE Drama |
| Essential skills | A love of theatre and willingness to visit live productions regularly. You must enjoy working as part of a team and under your own initiative. The ability to communicate ideas effectively both verbally and in written form is essential. You should be willing to take risks and use your creativity. |
| A level | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learners will research and practically explore practitioners and the work of others (40% of A Level) • Learners will explore one performance text (20% of A Level) • Learners will explore practically two performance texts on a chosen theme and will analyse and evaluate a live theatre performance (20% of A Level) • Learners will interpret and explore practically a performance text considering how to create, develop and direct a performance for an audience (20% of A Level) |
| University requirements | Requirements are varied depending on the course selected, however, examples are: Bristol University BA (Hons) Acting 280 UCAS points Surrey University BA (Hons) Musical Theatre BBB Central School of Speech & Drama BA (Hons) Acting 160 UCAS points De Montford University BA (Hons) Arts & Festival Management 160 points Most universities or drama schools will also require an audition for entry. |
| Related courses and careers | Arts Management, Acting, Law, Performance Arts, Community Theatre, Arts Administration, Stage Management, Musical Theatre, Teaching. |
| | |